

Year 6 Non-Chronological Report
Pupil	Objective	Teacher
	The report has a clear opening paragraph which indicates what it is about
	The opening paragraph includes generalisations or classifications
	The main body of The report is clearly organised into paragraphs
	The information is factual and accurate
	The style is formal with no personal pronouns
	The author used present tense or past tense for historical reports
	The author used precise, descriptive language and technical terms
	The author included a summarising comment to finish the report
	The author used at least three complex sentences
	The author used connectives of comparison and contrast
What could the author do to improve The report next time?		